ARTICLE IV - LOCAL LEAGUE STRUCTURE

SECTION 1 - Division Structure

A player's League Age determines their division eligibility as set forth in the Little League Baseball Rule Book. The divisional Vice-President can require a player to move to a different division if deemed necessary for safety reasons. RCLL Division Structure for Regular Season Play is deemed as follows.

- A. TEE BALL DIVISION – (4-6 year olds) League age four, five, and six year olds Objective: To instruct players in the fundamentals of the game in a fun, low-key atmosphere. At no time should winning or losing take priority in this program!

- B. MINOR LEAGUE DIVISION (MACHINE PITCH) - (7-8 year olds) - League age seven and eight year olds.
Objective: To further instruct the player coming out of Tee-Ball, the fundamentals of the game in a fun, low-key atmosphere. Emphasis in this program should be on the proper technique of throwing, catching, running, hitting and field positions.

- C. MINOR LEAGUE DIVISION (PLAYER PITCH) - (8-10 year olds) - League age eight, nine and ten year olds.
Objective: To instruct players in the fundamentals of the game in a fun, low-key atmosphere. Provide an outlet of healthful activity and training under good leadership. Establish the values and concepts of teamwork, sportsmanship and fair play. To further develop the techniques of throwing, catching, running, hitting, and pitching.

- D. MAJOR (LITTLE LEAGUE) DIVISION – (10-12 year olds) - League age ten, eleven and twelve year olds.
Objective: To establish the values and concepts of teamwork, sportsmanship, and fair play. To challenge the players towards the perfection of physical skills and bring into play the excitement of tactics and strategy.

- E. JUNIOR DIVISION – (12-14 year olds) League age twelve, thirteen, and fourteen year olds.

RICHMOND COUNTY LITTLE LEAGUE BYLAWS

play the excitement of tactics and strategy.

- F. SENIOR DIVISION – (13-16 year olds) League age thirteen, fourteen, fifteen and sixteen year olds.

Objective: To implement the values and concepts of teamwork, sportsmanship, and fair play. Continue to challenge the players towards the perfection of physical skills and bring into play the excitement of tactics and strategy.

- G. CHALLENGER DIVISION – The Challenger League of Richmond County Little League, is a program for mentally and physically disabled youth of Richmond County between the ages of 5 to 18 years old that need one on one with a more relaxed baseball setting.

Objective: The Challenger League offers children that are unable to play a “regular” game of baseball an opportunity to play with the help of a “Buddy”. The role of the Challenger Buddy during game play is to protect the Challenger player and to assist in anyway necessary.

SECTION 2 - Requests to Play Down a Division

Normally, players will not be allowed to play down a division unless the parent or guardian submits a written justification requesting a waiver prior to the conclusion of the registration period. This move can only take place if this player satisfies the Little League age requirements of the lower-level Division. The Vice President and Player Agent will provide a recommendation to the Board of Directors who will approve or deny such requests. A decision denying the request may be appealed to the RCLL President. The following guidelines will apply:

1. Coach Pitch Division: Coach Pitch players will be allowed to play down in the Tee Ball Division at the age of 7 only. In the case of returning players, the Vice President and Player Agent may consult with the player’s previous year manager and coach(es) to obtain a skill assessment.
2. Minor Division: Minor Division age players will be allowed to play down in the Coach Pitch Division at the age of 9 only. In the case of returning players, the Vice President and Player Agent(s) may consult with the player’s previous year manager and coach(es) to obtain a skill assessment. The player will be asked to participate in the Minor Division Skills Evaluation.
3. Major Division: Major Division age players will be allowed to play down in the Minor Division at the age of 10 only. In the case of returning players, the Vice President and Player Agent may consult with the player’s previous year manager and coach(es) to obtain a skill assessment. The player will be asked to participate in the Major Division Skills Evaluation.

Exceptions

- a. Safety Concerns: Following the evaluation period for Machine Pitch and above or upon receiving feedback from a team manager, the RCLL BOD may assess a player’s skill level and recommend to the parent(s) or guardian(s) of a player that the child might benefit by “playing down” for safety reasons.

RICHMOND COUNTY LITTLE LEAGUE BYLAWS

b. Division Composition: For the Junior and Senior Divisions (or for any Fall Ball Divisions), players may be asked by the RCLL BOD to play down in order to adequately fill teams. This will provide the opportunity to allow more intraleague play by structuring the league divisions to align with those of other leagues in the district

SECTION 3 – Request to Play Up a Division

Normally, players will not be allowed to play up in the next age level division. In fact, it is strongly discouraged. Requests to play up a division can only be made by the parent or guardian via a written justification submitted prior to the conclusion of the registration period. This move can only take place if the player satisfies the Little League age requirements of the upper level division. The Vice President and Player Agent will provide a recommendation to the Board of Directors who will approve or deny such requests. A decision denying the request may be appealed to the RCLL President. The following guidelines will apply:

1. Coach Pitch Division: Only league age six-year-olds may request to play up in the Coach Pitch Division. Note that in order to qualify for the Coach Pitch Division, the player must have played one Spring season of Tee Ball. In the case of returning players, the Vice President and Player Agent may consult with the player's previous year manager and/or coach(es) to obtain a skill assessment. If no assessment is available, or if the previous manager is uncertain about the player's skills, the player will initially be assigned to a team in the Tee Ball division. Once practices begin, the player's current manager can be consulted to determine whether he/she agrees that the player should be considered for play in the next higher division.
2. Minor Division: League age eight year olds may request to play up in the Minor division. In the case of returning players, the Vice President and Player Agent may consult with the player's previous year manager and/or coach(es) to obtain a skill assessment. If the Vice President and Player Agent agree that the player should be considered for play in the higher division, the player will then be subject to a skills evaluation to determine their placement within the league.
3. Major Division: League age ten year olds may request to play up in the Major division. In the case of returning players, the Vice President and Player Agent may consult with the player's previous year manager and/or coach(es) to obtain a skill assessment. If the Vice President and Player Agent agree that the player should be considered for play in the higher division, the player will then be subject to a skills evaluation to determine their placement within the league.

Exceptions

a. Safety Concerns: Following the evaluation for minors and above, or upon receiving feedback from a team manager, the RCLL BOD may assess a player's skill level and recommend to the parent(s) or guardian(s) of a player that the child be placed in an upper level division for safety reasons.

b. Division Composition: For the Junior and Senior Divisions, (or for any Fall Ball division), players may be asked by the RCLL BOD to play up in order to allow more intraleague play or more interleague play, by structuring the league divisions to align with those of other leagues within the district.

SECTION 4 – Player Draft

The following draft procedure shall be used for All Divisions of Play (Tee Ball - Senior Divisions). In the event of one team, there will be no draft.

- The managers shall draw numbers before the draft begins to determine the order of the player selection process.
- The draft will be a "snake draft" meaning the manager receiving the first pick in round 1, will receive the last pick in round 2. The manager receiving the last pick in round 1 will receive the first pick in round 2. This will continue until all players have been selected.

- Once the player draft is completed, the managers will have a maximum of 30 minutes to complete any trades. No trades will take place once the managers leave the draft room.
- In the event of contraction of teams, players from the teams contracted will be placed back in the draft pool to be chosen by the other managers.
- The Team Manager is responsible for contacting each player selected for their team within the time frame specified by Divisional Vice President set forth by the Local League.
- The Divisional Vice President is responsible for submitting a complete and verified roster to League Officers for submission to Little League International.
