SECTION 1 - Amendments to the Bylaws

The RCLL BoD has the authority to change these bylaws. Bylaws along with local rules and policies only require board consent without the general membership's approval. No part of the bylaws or local rules can conflict with or supersede any Little League International rule, regulation, or policy.

SECTION 3 - Requests to Play Down a Division

Normally, players will not be allowed to play down a division unless the parent or guardian submits a written justification requesting a waiver prior to the conclusion of the registration period. This move can only take place if this player satisfies the Little League age requirements of the lower-level Division. The Vice President and Player Agent will provide a recommendation to the Board of Directors who will approve or deny such requests. A decision denying the request may be appealed to the RCLL President. The following guidelines will apply:

1. Minor Coach Pitch Division: Coach Pitch players will be allowed to play down in the Tee Ball Division at the age of 6 and 7 only. In the case of returning players, the Vice President and Player Agent may consult with the player’s previous year manager and coach(es) to obtain a skill assessment.
2. Minor Player Pitch Division: Minor Player Pitch players will be allowed to play down in the Coach Pitch Division at the ages of 8 and 9 only. In the case of returning players, the Vice President and Player Agent may consult with the player’s previous year manager and coach(es) to obtain a skill assessment. The player will be asked to participate in the Minor Division Skills Evaluation.

The player will be asked to participate in the Major Division Skills Evaluation.

Exceptions

- a. Safety Concerns: Following the evaluation period for Coach Pitch and above or upon receiving feedback from a team manager, the RCLL BoD may assess a player’s skill level and recommend to the parent(s) or guardian(s) of a player that the child might benefit by “playing down” for safety reasons.
- b. Division Composition: Players may be asked by the RCLL BoD to play down to adequately fill teams. This will provide the opportunity to allow more intraleague play by structuring the league divisions to align with those of other leagues in the district.

SECTION 4 - Request to Play Up a Division

Normally, players will not be allowed to play up in the next age level division. In fact, it is strongly discouraged. Requests to play up a division can only be made by the parent or guardian via a written justification submitted prior to the conclusion of the registration period. This move can only take place if the player satisfies the Little League age requirements of the upper level division. The Vice President and Player Agent will provide a recommendation to the Board of Directors who will approve or deny such requests. A decision denying the request may be

RICHMOND COUNTY LITTLE LEAGUE BYLAWS

ARTICLE VI - RCLL VOUNTEER AND APPROVAL POLICY

Section 1 - Volunteer Policy

The Richmond County Little League Board of Directors (or a designated representative) shall encourage members to volunteer their time and assistance for fundraising, concessions, umpiring, managing/coaching, scorekeeping, and any other capacity as deemed necessary by the board. Once volunteers are obtained, it is the responsibility of the Board of Directors (or a designated representative) to make sure the volunteer form is completed. Most volunteer forms will be completed online. If a potential volunteer is completing a paper form it must include Social Security Number (SSN), provide a copy of a photo I.D., and have all required signatures. Then a background check will be obtained in accordance with established policy through the website provided by Little League requirements. In addition to a background check, volunteers will need to complete a child abuse awareness training, and the Little League Diamond Leader training.

Section 2 - Volunteer Screening

The volunteer background-screening process will include all volunteers, especially those who will have contact or access to youth in RCLL programs. This is a requirement of Little League International. (Note: "Since 2003, the local league has been and is required to have all board members, managers, coaches, and other volunteers or hired workers who provide a regular service to the league and/or who have repetitive access to or contact with players or teams fill out a new volunteer application yearly. Additionally, the league has been and is required to conduct a background check on each of these volunteers."). This background screening will occur annually and the fact that someone may have a clear background check one year does not ensure that they will have a clear background check the next year. The RCLL President (or a representative designated by the President) will review the background check report and determine volunteer eligibility. Volunteers must have an approved background check report prior to beginning league activities that has contact with players or teams. RCLL utilizes USA Baseball's BASE Child Abuse Awareness training for its volunteers. Volunteers are required to complete the abuse awareness training and forward their certificate of completion to their respective Divisional Vice President or the League Secretary for tracking.

RCLL maintains physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to guard your nonpublic personal information. If you have any questions regarding our Privacy Policy, please contact any current RCLL board member.
